

There Is a Rainbow

Written by Theresa Trinder
Pictures by Grant Snider

ACTIVITY KIT

BEFORE-AND-AFTER MATCHING GAME

Complete the sentences! Draw a line from the images and words on the left of the page to the corresponding images and words on the right side of the page. Happy matching!

On the other side of a storm...

...there is a path.

On the other side of the mountain...

...there are hugs.

On the other side of the street...

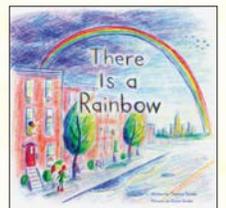

...there is a rainbow.

On the other side of sadness...

... there is help.

WRITE YOUR OWN BEFORE-AND-AFTER STATEMENTS

Complete the sentences below with whatever amazing things you want to come after!

Ex: On the other side of homework, there is free time to play!

On the other side of a scary dream, _____.

On the other side of a long car ride, _____.

On the other side of a skinned knee, _____.

On the other side of waiting in line, _____.

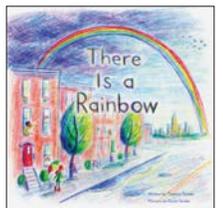

Now, try writing your own before-and-after statement!

On the other side of _____, there is _____.

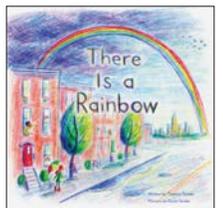

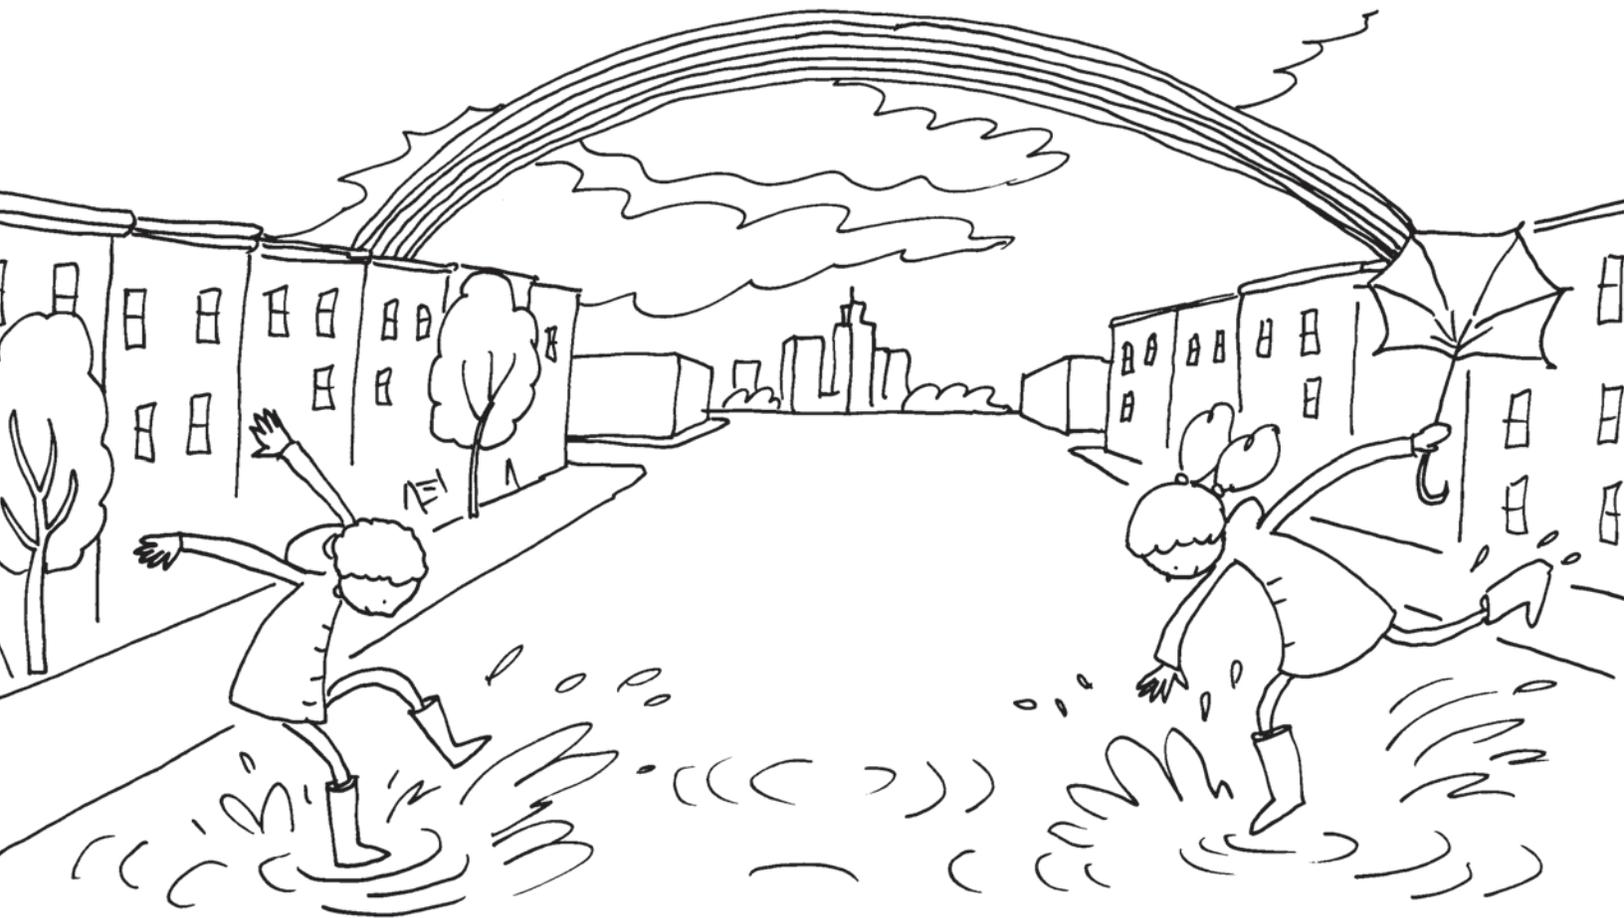

GET COLORING

Add a rainbow of colors to these illustrations from the book!

GET COLORING

CREATE YOUR OWN RAINBOW

Below, draw your very own unique, colorful rainbow. Once your masterpiece is complete, ask for an adult's help to cut out your design and hang it in a window of your house for those walking by to admire!

“On the other side of a storm, there is a rainbow.”

—From There Is a Rainbow

